

Will you help me go the distance for Australians with vision loss?

This April, I'm moving 100km in a month to raise funds for Vision Australia and I need your help!

With your support, my strides can change lives by empowering Australians with vision loss to create their own path and move forward in life with confidence.

Donate now at 100kyourway.org

Sponsor me:

